In 1750 Wesley published a monolithic 50-volume set of books called A Christian Library: Extracts from and Abridgments of the Choicest Pieces of Practical Divinity Which Have Been Published in the English Tongue. In this collection of writings, he mostly ignores the church fathers (represented only by the apostolic fathers and Macarius), the great medieval scholastics, and the reformers. Instead, Wesley focuses on recent centuries (from as far back as the sixteenth up to his contemporaries like Jonathan Edwards in the eighteenth), English works (including both Puritans and Established churchmen who took turns persecuting each other), and above all, Practical Divinity. Here is a list of contents of John Wesley's Christian Library: Volume 1: The Apostolic Fathers, Macarius of Egypt, Johann Arndt's True Christianity. Volume 2: Foxe's Book of Martyrs.
