

A Steak in Murder: A Hemlock Falls Mystery (Hemlock Falls Mystery Series Book 7)

#7 in Claudia Bishops Hemlock Falls Mystery series Sarah Quilliam (Quill) regrets that she traded her beloved Inn at Hemlock Falls, even with all its debts, for a small in-town restaurant, and she wants her Inn back. A group of cattlemen now staying at the Inn have brought some of their prized Texas Longhorn cows, boasting of its purebred line and seeking local investors. A lot of whats going on doesnt smell right -- and its not just the cow manure in Quills former flower garden. When murder once again stalks the town of Hemlock Falls, Quill and her sister Meg once again become detectives. Full of surprises and Claudia Bishops signature humor. Marinade for Texas Longhorn Beef recipe included. on the Hemlock Falls Mystery series: Always a great reading experience. - The Best Reviews Offbeat intriguing The reader can settle in Hemlock Falls comfortably. - The Armchair Detective Fine local color and interesting characters. - Murder ad lib Claudia Bishop writes an enthralling amateur-sleuth mystery. - The Best Reviews An entertaining, quirky, and offbeat mystery A special treat for amateur sleuth lovers. - Midwest Book Reviews on other works by the author: Engaging and charismatic a breath of fresh air. - Publishers Weekly (re the authors Defending Angels series) Stanton writes with a sure hand. - Orson Scott Card A wonderful book It is also required reading for all animal lovers. - Gene Wolfe (on THE HEAVENLY HORSE FROM THE OUTERMOST WEST) If you loved WATERSHIP DOWN this is the fantasy book for you: lovingly detailed, heart-quickenning. - Jane Yolen (on THE HEAVENLY HORSE FROM THE OUTERMOST WEST) author bio: Claudia Bishop (Mary Stanton) writes the popular Hemlock Falls mysteries from her farm in upstate New York, where she is surrounded by great vineyards, wonderful
