

Black Reconstruction in America: An Essay Toward a History of the Part Which Black Folk Played in the Attempt to Reconstruct Democracy in America, 1860-1880

No one can consider himself informed on all phases of the Negro problem unless he has read this book. It crowns the long, unselfish and brilliant career of Dr. Du Bois. It is comparable in clarity, originality and importance to the Beards Rise of American Civilization of the negroes part in Reconstruction it is beyond question the most painstaking and thorough study ever made...An imposing contribution to a critical period of American history
