The novels centenary was celebrated by an international assembly of scholars in Los Angeles. Elizabeth Miller, organiser of the Academic Program, has selected and edited twenty papers for this anthology. While Dracula - fictional or historical - provides the central focus, this anthology offers the reader a rich diversity of approaches. These include new theories about Stokers possible sources, explorations of Dracula in the Victorian context, commentaries on the historical Dracula, and fresh interpretations of the novel. Dracula: The Shade and the Shadow makes a major contribution to the understanding of Stokers masterpiece. I love the shade and the shadow, and would be alone with my thoughts when I may.
