

Cheri-Bibi: The Stage Play (French Mystery Book 3)

The hulking Cheri-Bibi, framed for a murder which he did not commit, escapes from Devils Island by having the dying Marquis du Touchais face grafted upon his own by a mad surgeon. But fate will not easily relinquish its prey and Cheri-Bibi discovers that his newfound freedom and fortune have come at a terrible price... After The Phantom of the Opera and detective Joseph Rouletabille, Cheri-Bibi is the third legendary hero created by one of France's greatest popular novelist and feuilletoniste of La Belle Epoque, Gaston Leroux (1868-1927).
