

Ruff Way To Go

Dog Therapist Allie Babcock is Back and she has a bone to pick with a killer. Allie's dog therapy practice in Boulder, Colorado is thriving. Her divorcing neighbors, Edith and Trevor, hire Allie to decide which one gets custody of Shogun, their silky terrier. And another neighborhood pair, Cassandra and Paul, need help with a fostered Siberian husky and her puppies. Life seems to be ambling along quite nicely for Allie until she finds Cassandra's bloodied body sprawled on Edith's deck with a bloody pawprint next to it and the silky terrier, Shogun, nowhere to be found. Who could have possibly murdered Cassandra? And where could little Shogun run to? And even more curious, what really does make that old couple down the street so incredibly hostile? Not only is Allie in the doghouse with just about everyone she knows, the police are also hounding her hard. Not one to rest on her heels, Allie unleashes her sleuthing skills and finds herself in one close and awfully uncomfortable encounter with a cold-hearted killer.
