

Lodge Secretary and Director of Ceremonies

The most comprehensive and easy to use book of Masonic talks ever published. Perfect for impromptu performance in Lodge should a candidate fail to appear or should one not be available. Each and every talk is deliberately designed to have the same running time as the average Masonic meeting ensuring one will be on time for the Festive Board. Produced in a convenient ring bound format so the pages don't close during performance. Covers a vast range of exciting topics including the origins of the Craft degrees, the Templars and the Rose Croix; explaining the ancient landmarks; the task of Royal Arch and much, much more. Contains 14 chapters
