

Taking Sides: Clashing Views on Controversial Issues in American Foreign Policy (Taking Sides: American Foreign Policy)

This debate-style reader is designed to introduce students to controversies in American foreign policy. The readings, which represent the arguments of leading political scientists and researchers, reflect a variety of viewpoints. The readings have been selected for their liveliness and substance and for their value in a debate framework. By requiring students to analyze opposing viewpoints and reach considered judgments, Taking Sides actively develops students critical thinking skills.
