Science: Jan 1, 2000 The self-avowed purpose of this text is to address science illiteracy in America. Trefil and Hazen propose that the best way to combat scientific illiteracy is to integrate the life and physical sciences. There are several reasons why the life and physical sciences need to be taught and learned in an integrated way, if an integrated approach is followed in studying the life and physical sciences. Wiley: The Sciences: An Integrated Approach, 7th Edition - James Trefil, Robert M.
