TITIAN Art Book contains 175 Renaissance reproductions of portraits, religious and mythical scenes with title and date and introduction below. Book includes Table of Contents, thumbnail gallery and is formatted for all Kindle readers and Tablets (use rotate and/or zoom feature on landscape/horizontal images for optimal viewing). BORN: c1488-1490 in Pieve di Cadore, Italy. DIED: August 27, 1576 in Venice, Italy. MOVEMENT: High Renaissance INTERESTING FACTS: Titian studied under Giovanni Bellini. In 1511, his first major commission was the three frescoes on the life of St Antony of Padua. In 1530, the death of his wife led to a change in his manner of painting. Titian's style became more restrained and less adventurous with color and composition. Titian was commissioned to paint Charles V of Spain and his son, Philip II. He also completed a seven piece mythological series for the King. Titian's assistants were his brother Francesco Vecellio, his son Orazio, and his cousin, Cesare. NOTABLE WORKS: Assumption of the Virgin, Pesaro's Madonna, The Death of St Peter Martyr and Venus of Urbino.
